2010 Capital Fund Education and Training Community Facilities Program Grant Summaries

The Housing Authority of the City of Seattle requested $3,109,271 to rehabilitate a former steam plant located on housing authority property. When renovated, the facility will include 11,692 square feet, two floors plus a roof-top terrace. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training. Partners identified include Head Start, Catholic Community Services, the Service Employees International Union, and the local Workforce Development Council.

The King County Housing Authority requested the following:

- $815,888 to renovate and expand an existing one-story building located on housing authority property. When completed, the facility will include 3,366 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training. Partners identified include the local community college, the YWCA, the King County Work Training Program, and the local Workforce Development Council.
- $995,207 to construct a one-story building located on housing authority property. When completed, the facility will include 3,563 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training; partners identified include Green River Community College, the Refugee Women's Alliance, and the Puget Sound Educational Services District.
- $1,218,678 to construct a one-story building located on PHA property. When completed, the facility will contain 4430 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training; partners identified include the Kent Family Center, the Refugee Women's Alliance, and the Puget Sound Educational Services District.

The Boston Housing Authority requested $5,000,000 to construct a two-story building located on housing authority property. When completed, the building will contain 19,500 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training. Partners identified include United Way of Massachusetts Bay, Family Services of Greater Boston, the Urban College of Boston, and Children's Hospital-Boston.

The Albany Housing Authority requested $4,983,822 to construct a two-story building located on housing authority property. When completed, the building will contain 12,200 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training. Partners identified include Trinity Alliance of the Capital Region, Hudson Valley Community College, and the Albany Community Partnership.

The Housing Authority of the City of Camden requested $2,230,168 to construct a single-story building located on housing authority property. When completed, the building will contain 9,868 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training. Partners identified include the Community Development Institute Head Start and Youth Build.

The Housing Authority of the City of Asheville requested $3,997,348 to rehabilitate a two-story building. When renovated, the building will contain 33,495 square feet. This facility will offer adult education and job training. Partners identified include Green Opportunities, Community Action Opportunities, and Partners Unlimited.

The Akron Metropolitan Housing Authority requested $4,002,147 to construct a one-story building located on PHA property. When completed, the building will contain 18,395 square feet. This facility will provide early education, adult education, and job training. Partners identified include the local public school system, the county public library, the local Goodwill Industries, and the county Department of Jobs and Family Services.

The Housing Authority of the City of Austin requested $1,745,550 to construct a two-story building on a site owned by the housing authority. When completed, the facility will contain 10,000 square feet. This facility will offer adult education and job training. Partners identified include the local Workforce Board, Austin Community College, and LifeWorks.

The St. Louis Housing Authority requested $5,000,000 to construct a new one-story, 26,300 square foot building on a site owned by the housing authority. This facility will provide early education. Partners identified include University City Children's Center, Youth in Need, the St. Louis Public Library, and the Grace Hill Neighborhood Health Centers.

The Helena Housing Authority requested $576,479 to construct a new one-story, 4500 square foot facility on a site owned by the housing authority. This facility will provide early education and job training. Partners identified include the local Head Start, the local branch of the State University, and the local Career Training Institute